A BRILLIANT WEDDING

Marriage of Miss Bertha L. Reed and Mr. R. J. Glendinning

AT ST. MARK'S CATHEDRAL

THE CHURCH FILLED WITH THE INVITED GUESTS.

Ceremony Followed by a Large Reception at the Knutsford-Till Bridal Party—Marriage of Miss Agnes Sharp and Mr. James Hay at the Salt Lake Temple.

Miss Bertha L. Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard W. Reed, was married last evening at St. Mark's cathedral to Mr. R. J. Glendinning.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard W. Reed, and has occupied a prominent position in Salt Lake society circles for the past three years.

Mr. Glendinning has been prominent in business and social circles for the past ten years.

At 8 o'clock the church was filled with the invited guests; long white stately robes were worn by the bridesmaids and the bridesmaids were dressed in white.

Prior to the wedding march, the organ played softly. "Oh, Promise Me," and promptly at 8 the opening strains of Lehigh's wedding march were heard, and the bride and groom were escorted to the altar by Mr. Glendinning.

The bride's attendants, Misses Agnes Sharp and Miss Maude Thorne, were dressed in white. The bridesmaids, Misses Agnes Sharp and Miss Maude Thorne, were dressed in white.

The ceremony was performed by Dean Halsey, rector of the church, while the congregation was pronounced by Bishop Leonard.

When the officiating clergyman had spoken the words of the wedding, the bride walked down the center aisle to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march.

After the ceremony at the church a large reception was given at the Knutsford hotel.

The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard W. Reed, assisted by the bride's father and Mr. and Mrs. Glendinning.

Mrs. Reed was given in a pink and black striped tulle, with trimmings of white lace and a large diamond brooch.

The bride presented each of her maidens as a souvenir of the occasion with dainty ensembles.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Glendinning will be at home at 519 First street after October first.

Sharp-Hay.

Yesterday at the Salt Lake temple Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp's daughter, Miss Agnes, was married to Mr. James Hay.

In the evening a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sharp.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The front drawing room was especially beautiful in its decorations.

GOLD MEN ALARMED

Action of the Independent Republicans Causes Much Anxiety.

THE MT. PLEASANT MEETING

COMMITTEEMEN IN FAVOR OF RECALLING THEIR ACTION.

Republicans of the City Generally Favor Taking Action with the Independents and Allowing the Call Already Issued to Go by Default—Silver Republicans Preparing for a County Convention—Precinct Officers Falling Into Line—Democracy Primaries on the 15th—Good Chance to Redeem the County—Populists Attempt to Meet with the Democrats, But Fail—Other Political News.

The Independent Republicans are not going to stop with a state convention, in this county, at least, but will issue a call for primaries which will choose delegates to a county convention, which will nominate candidates for the several offices which are to be filled this fall.

A member of the executive committee of the party said this would be done right away and that a separate ticket would be put in the field. There is to be no funny business as far as the silver men are concerned, and it is very likely that all the counties in the state will follow the example set by the Salt Lake.

The action of the Independent Republicans is causing a shiver to run down the backbones of the McKinley committee, which is the principal element of strength of the gold party.

The manner in which the silver men were treated at the committee meeting was such that they felt that they were being treated as second-class citizens.

Believing they could do anything they pleased in Utah this fall. They had the votes in the committee and thought the voters would follow in the lead.

While the commoners rose to the emergency, and now the goldbugs are agitated.

It was stated on the street yesterday that the state committee men and committee men were waiting to see what the commoners would do.

The board of police and fire commissioners met last evening with Messrs. Varian, Noble and Jennings present, and transacted considerable business, mostly of a routine character.

Secretary Feit read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved.

CHARGES AGAINST FIREMAN WILSON.

Mrs. Agnes Jones, a married woman over 32 years of age, the mother of one child and a resident of Challis, Custer county, Idaho, filed sworn charges against Fireman James W. Wilson.

It is stated that the woman called on Wilson for medical advice, being unwell, and called at the West Side department to see Assistant Chief Donovan.

Wilson, who is a friend of the woman, was waiting in the station house for Mr. Donovan when the woman called.

Wilson insulted her, threw his arms around her waist and attempted to kiss her. The woman fled in terror and begged her not to make any trouble about his very peculiar conduct.

The hearing of Wilson was set for September 21 before the board.

FIREMAN WOOD ALSO IN TROUBLE.

Assistant City Attorney Hempstead sent in the following complaint, dated July 24, 1896:

His honor the mayor: We are preparing answers on behalf of the city in suits recently brought against it by Fireman Clark, Movers, Gilbert and McMullan, and in doing so we have been compelled to call on the fire department for information concerning the facts alleged in the complaints of the plaintiffs.

This communication is addressed to you for the purpose of calling your attention to the insolent conduct of a fireman who gave his name as Wood.

This man Wood said he knew the position Clark occupied, but didn't have to tell the city attorney. He refused to do so in a very insolent manner.

It seems to me that the city should not have men in its employ who entertain feelings of hostility toward it, and who are willing in any way possible to insult and oppress the citizens.

Wood, it is understood, says he does not know what he said, but that if it were true he would be in communication with the city attorney.

The Republican primaries will be held at 10 o'clock next, for the purpose of choosing delegates to the county convention.

The purpose of the meeting was to select the delegates to the county convention, which will meet in this city on the 15th, which will in turn select those who will be able to do so.

The meeting was held in the morning at 10 o'clock. Then on Wednesday evening there will be primaries to select delegates to a convention which will meet in this city on the 15th.
